FROM THE BOOKSHELF

by Cheryl E. Maisch

Requests to borrow books or for Library information should be addressed to Cheryl Maisch, P.O. Box H, Brunswick, Maine 04011-0832. Please include your complete mailing address with zip code and your TAMS membership number.

By the time that you read this the TAMS Library will be on the move AGAIN! This time we are moving to Turnersville, New Jersey as a result of a job transfer for Robert. We do not have a P.O. Box yet — so, we will rely on the Postal system to forward your requests to me. I expect to be fully caught up with all requests by the time we move at the end of July. As usual I appreciate your patience.

We are planning to be in Cincinnati for the annual meeting — look forward to seeing you all there.

We would like to express our thanks and appreciation to the following individuals and organizations for their recent donations in support of the TAMS Library: Carolina Token and Medal Society (CH.4 and JP-CA-5), Paul Cunningham (CU.7), Dr. Julien Priver (WE.10 and second copy of BE.1), Dick Hanscom (JP-AL-1 and JP-AL-2), American Tax Token Society (JP-AT-1), Florida Token Society (JP-FT-1), Georgia State Token-Exonumia Association (JP-GT-1), New Jersey Exonumia Society (JP-NJ-1), New York State Wooden Money Society (JP-NY-1), Albert M. Shaw (JP-OM-2), Pacific Northwest Numismatic Association (JP-PN-1), California Exonumist Society (JP-SC-1), Walter Caldwell (JP-ST-1), International Organization of Wooden Money Collectors (JP-WM-1).

The Flip Side

by George Lill III

When is a token not a token? As simple a question to answer as "if a tree falls with no living thing within hearing distance, does it make a noise?" In this case, the pictured object is clearly a coin (having a monetary value and being issued by a governmental body), right? Maybe! In 1981 TASA, the Automatic Telephone Company, completed the ($US 3,000,000) installation of an Erickson direct dial telephone system in La Paz, Bolivia. Up until that time any public phones as such had existed only as private phones in the vendors' kiosks along the various streets, or in restaurants or stores that had telephones. When you could find a telephone, if they allowed its use, one merely paid the prevailing rate (in

Boardgame Tokens: The Game of Games

By Dave Morice

Introduction

A hand points a pistol. A rabbit lies on the ground with MUMMY below it. A witch, wearing a black pointed hat, smiles from behind her warty nose. Nearby, a pair of bright poisoned apples are glistening ominously, an orange popsickle melts by a raven's glowing wishbone, and a tiny red cat leers at a tiny red mouse. Over there — a stack of disks seems to conceal a secret message in a lost code: HEAVY, INDOORS, SHARP, UNPLANNED, SENSELESS, HEATED, VISCIOUS... Suddenly, eight anti-aircraft guns are aimed at a herd of steer. Are these clues to Sherlock Holmes' craziest case?

No, they happen to be words and images on a pile of Boardgame Tokens scattered across my desk. They come from mystery games, movie games, Disney games, world power games, Smurf games, games of all kinds for all ages. They represent players, points, moves, or whatever the particular game specifies.

Despite their differences in usage, they have several things in common. They're round and flat, made of cardboard. They're almost always die-cut into a larger board for punching out by hand. They range in measurement like coins, from dime-sized to crown-sized, sometimes smaller or larger. The great majority are unifaced and multicolored. And, of course, they have no purpose in the real world — until the game begins. These are exonumic artifacts of America's passion for play.

For the past few years, I've accumulated game pieces of all sizes, shapes, colors, and materials. My main intention was to stockpile the pieces for use in art projects, and I didn't feel a need to keep track of where they came from. With few exceptions, I simply pitched out the boxes, boards, and rule books to save space. Five years later, I had a miniature mountain of plastic houses, metal rocket ships, wooden people, and cardboard pieces, with vague memories of their games.

I've also collected trade tokens, transportation tokens, amusement tokens, and similar items, but I didn't think about boardgame pieces in that context. Then one bright exonumic morning, it dawned on me that some of the boardgame pieces actually qualify as round cardboard tokens — about 300 of them, counting duplicates, among the 25,000 or so pieces. That's just a little over one percent, but so much variety in that small amount! In the world of boardgames, round tokens are uncommon, especially compared to flat rectangular pieces, like Monopoly's famous Chance and Community Chest Cards.

After letting the tokens sleep in a box for a couple of years, I decided to begin a more organized, annotated search. It's been an elusive trail, leading from the attics of ancestors to the basements of Salvation Armies, from high-priced antique malls to fly-by-night flea markets. I haven't yet been able to locate replacement copies for most of the earlier games I'd already plundered. Their original boxes have long since returned to the earth, perhaps to fertilize trees that will be cut down to make paper for the boardgames of the 21st century. As a result, those tokens are mavericks that would've puzzled even Mr. Holmes and Dr. Watson.

During my recent search, I found more examples of Boardgame Tokens and kept records of their games. Interestingly enough, the tokens are often called by different names in different games: chips, disks, markers, counters, coins, pieces, or who-knows-what. There's even a set of "Bad fors." So...

What Are Boardgame Tokens?

In this article, Boardgame Tokens are defined as flat, round, cardboard game pieces, with the term "boardgame" used in the broadest sense. Most of the tokens have words and/or images on them. Those with nothing more than a color or a pattern are not included, except when they come as part of a set of word/image tokens and serve a purpose in the game. Also excluded are disks that assemble into spinners, gummed stickers that permanently bind to other parts, and tokens that come from lottery cards, gambling boards, or contest games.

Organization of the Catalog

This preliminary Catalog of Boardgame Tokens is divided into two sections: Identified Tokens and Mavericks. It presents 56 sets in all, with a grand total of 503 different tokens. Sometime in the next few months, after the catalog has grown in size, I plan on publishing it.

The general format for an entry describes the token and gives additional information about it. However, not all the information is present in all the entries. In some cases, it is unspecified in the game itself; in other cases, it is unknown, and may never be known. Here is the format:

(1) Title of the game (or a nominal title for mavericks) in all capital letters.

(2) General description of the token set, obverse, reverse, size (diameter x thickness, in millimeters), number of different tokens in the set, and the tokens' names.

(3) Picture of a representative token or tokens.

(4) Specific token entries, consisting of catalog numbers followed by brief descriptions.

Maverick entries usually end here. Identified tokens continue with:

(5) Attribution information: Name of game and subtitle or slogan, publisher (which often includes the copyright notice indicating year, publishing company, city, and state) with any collaborators.

(6) Other relevant data, such as age level of players, number of players, object of game, and comments.

Occasionally, a token set's description has to stray from this format. If so, the change is accompanied by a parenthetical explanation.

Notes on Notation

Temporary Title Numbers: The numbers listed before the titles of each entry are temporary. They are used in this article for easy reference to the different sets of tokens.

Permanent Catalog Numbers: The catalog numbers for identified tokens are intended to be permanent. Maverick token numbers, on the other hand, are "semi-permanent." They'll be changed if and when the mavericks are attributed to their original games.

The catalog numbers are formed by the first three letters of the token set's TITLE, or letters close to it, followed by a number for each specific token entry. For instance, the game GRAFO begins with catalog numbers GRA-1, GRA-2, GRA-3. Maverick catalog numbers are formed similarly, but they are preceded by a small letter "m" to indicate their maverick status. The unattributed set called STATE CAPITOLS begins mSTA-1, mSTA-2, mSTA-3.

Internal Symbols: Within the specific token entry (and sometimes in the general description of the token set) the following symbols are used: A slash (/) sets off separate lines of text or pictures. A double slash (//) separates obverse from reverse. Parentheses () indicate words that do not appear on the token but are used to describe the token. Words without parentheses appear on the token. A question mark (?) implies that the information is uncertain. Otherwise, I've avoided using symbols in favor of verbal description.

The Game of Games

Attribution of maverick trade tokens, as Lewis Ferguson, Sam Ruggeri, and many others well know, is a game of sorts. The game begins with your playing piece, the maverick token. You move along "squares" consisting of directories, newspapers, and other sources. Some moves are good, some bad. With luck, you win by locating the token's originating town. Otherwise, it's back to "GO." For Boardgame Tokens, though, attribution requires locating the originating games. If you find the complete game, you automatically find the tokens and the information. But sometimes the box, the board, or the rules are missing, and that can be a problem. Worse yet, if the tokens are found without the game, it really gets difficult. Rarely does the name of the game appear on the token.

Most of the information in the identified tokens of this catalog is complete and correct, but much information is still needed to attribute the Mavericks in the format described above. I would appreciate any help in identifying the mavericks or in locating and identifying unlisted tokens. Anyone providing information and/or tokens will be acknowledged in the catalog, unless anonymity is requested. For each token sent that I don't have, I will send two back. Those are the game rules.

Cataloging Boardgame Tokens is the Game of Games.

Catalog Entries For Identified Boardgame Tokens

1. — ANNIE

Obverse: Yellow star outlined in black on white background.
Reverse: White.
Size: 22mm x 1mm
Number of copies: 64

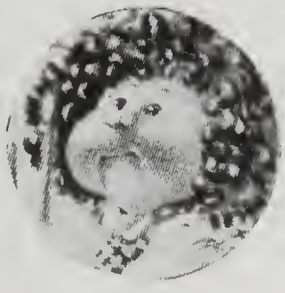
Ages: 8-Adult
Players: 2-4
Object: "To be the first player to complete the Voyage of Fear from the Palomino (spaceship) to the Black Hole."
Comment: This game is based on the Walt Disney Productions movie, "The Black Hole."

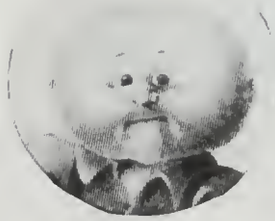
3. — CABBAGE PATCH KIDS

Obverse: Different kid's head with different hair color or bald head on white background. Or completely blank white obverse.
Reverse: Green cabbage with a smiling face in the leaves on white background (including token with blank obverse).
Size: 31mm x 1mm
Number of copies of each: 10 (CAB-1 to CAB-5); 4 (CAB-6)
Name of token: "Cabbage Chip"

CAB-1 (Kid's head with black hair)
CAB-2 (Kid's head with blond hair)



CAB-3 (Kid's head with brown hair)
CAB-4 (Kid's head with red hair)



CAB-5 (Kid's head with no hair)
CAB-6 (White blank)

Title of game: "Cabbage Patch Kids — Friends to the Rescue"
Publisher: Parker Brothers, Beverly, MA, with (c) 1984 Original Appalachian Artworks, Cleveland GA
Ages: 4-8
Players: 2-4
Object: "Be the first to bring home either 4 Kids with the same hair color, or 4 Kids who each have a different hair color."
Comment: This is a spin-off of the Cabbage Patch Kids dolls.

4. — CENTIPEDE

Obverse: Red and white mushroom on green background.
Reverse: Red dot pattern on yellow background.
Size: 19mm x 1mm
Number of copies: 10
Name of token: "Poison Mushroom"

CEN-1 (Mushroom)

Title of game: "Centipede — Danger Lurks at Every Turn In the Deadly Mushroom Field"
Publisher: Milton Bradley Co., Springfield MA, with (c) 1983 Atari
Ages: 7-14
Players: 2
Object: "Be the first player to move your centipede into your opponent's home base."
Comment: This is a spinoff of the video game of the same name.

Title of game: "Grafo — The Biography Game of Skill"
Publisher: (c) 1976 The Perfection Form Company, Logan IA
Ages: Unspecified
Players: Up to 40
Object: "To cover the numbers and legends on a card in any of three directions — horizontal, vertical, or diagonal... The first player who completes a row of five, then calls GRAFO."
Comment: This is a literary variation of Bingo.

15. — HOKUM

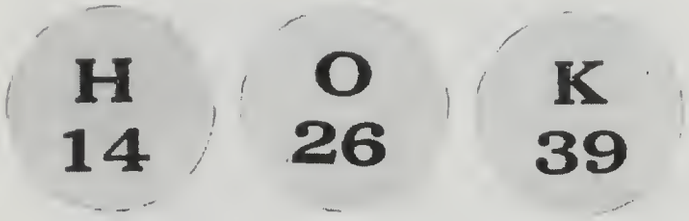
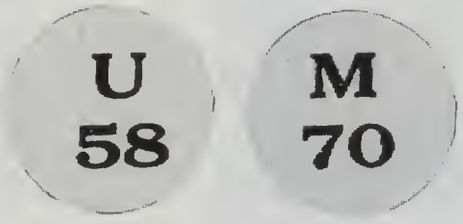
Obverse: Letter H, O, K, U, or M above number from 1-75 in black on yellow background.
Reverse: Yellow.
Size: 13½mm x 1mm
Number of copies of each: 1

Name of token: "Calling Disk"

(Note: The listing for these tokens has been condensed by dividing them into five groups, one for each letter in HOKUM. Each group represents fifteen tokens. The catalog numbers appear in the left column, and the corresponding descriptions in the right.)



HOK-1 through HOK-15 = H / 1 through H / 15
HOK-16 through HOK-30 = O / 16 through O / 30
HOK-31 through HOK-45 = K / 31 through K / 45



HOK-46 through HOK-60 = U / 46 through U / 60
HOK-61 through HOK-75 = M / 61 through M / 75

Title of game: "Hokum — The Game for a Roomful"
Publisher: (c) 1927 Parker Brothers, Inc., Salem MA, New York NY, London England.
Ages: Unspecified
Players: 3-8
Object: "The OBJECT of the Game is to win 1000 points; Score is made in each hand by the player who first covers a complete row with five counters, earning thereby the total indicated in small figures on the margin of the card."
Comment: This is an early variation of Bingo.

16. — KNIGHT RIDER

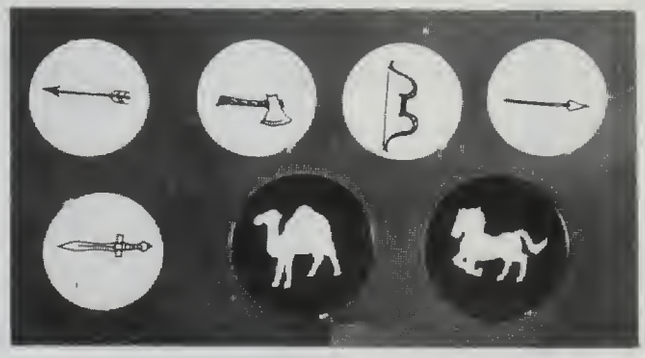
Obverse: Dollar amount in black on white background.
Reverse: Pink.
Size: 18mm x ½mm
Number of copies of each: 6 (KNI-1); 4 (KNI-2); 3 (KNI-3); 2 (KNI-4); 1 (KNI-5)
Name of token: "Trouble Spot"

KNI-1 $1,000
KNI-2 $2,000
KNI-3 $3,000
KNI-4 $4,000
KNI-5 $5,000

Title of game: "Knight Rider — A High Speed Adventure Game"
Publisher: Parker Brothers, Beverly, MA, with (c) 1982, 1983 Universal City Studios
Ages: 7-14
Players: 2-4
Object: "To clear up the most trouble spots and earn the most bonus money."
Comment: This is a spin-off of the TV program of the same name. The tokens have the highest denominations in any games discovered so far.

17. — LANKHMAR

Obverse: Black weapons on white background. Or white beasts on black background.
Reverse: Grey.
Size: 13½x1½ (LAN-1 to LAN-5); 16x1½ (LAN-6, LAN-7).
Number of copies of each: 40 (LAN-1); 9 (LAN-2); 18 (LAN-3); 20 (LAN-4); 50 (LAN-5); 8 (LAN-6); 15 (LAN-7)
Names of tokens: "Weapon" (LAN-1 to LAN-5); "Beast" (LAN-6, LAN-7)



LAN-1 (Arrow)
LAN-2 (Axe)
LAN-3 (Bow)
LAN-4 (Spear)
LAN-5 (Sword)
LAN-6 (Camel)
LAN-7 (Horse)

Title of game: "Lankhmar — The Game of Swords & Sorcery Warfare on the Fantastic World of Nehwon"
Publisher: (c) 1976, TSR Games, Lake Geneva WI
Ages: 12-Adult
Players: 2-4
Object: "Lankhmar is a game which presents the warfare of the world of Nehwon in abstract, yet faithful, terms. Each player has a Hero... and a number of Warriors... Marshall your army and set forth to conquer a new world!"
Comment: The action takes place in the same manner as told in the s.f. series of "The Fafhrd and Gray Mouser Sagas!" by writer Fritz Leiber. "Nehwon" is "No when" spelled backwards.

18. — LET'S GO SAILING

Obverse: Sailboat outlined in black with white sails, colored flag, and red boat, on water the same color as background.
Reverse: Grey.
Size: 22mm x 1mm
Number of copies of each: 1
Name of token: "Marker"

MOR-1 1 / GREBBLE / ORK

Title of game: "Mork & Mindy — Parker Brothers Game of Splink"
Publisher: (c) 1979, Parker Brothers, Beverly, MA 01915, with (c) 1979 Paramount Pictures Corporation
Object: Unknown
Ages: 7-14
Players: 2-4
Comment: This is a spinoff of the 1970s TV series starring Robin Williams as Mork, a humanoid alien from Ork, whose closest Earthling friend is Mindy. "Grebble" means "Money" in Mork's native language.

21. — MURDER, SHE WROTE

Obverse: Yellow "ALIVE" or blue "DEAD" on black background. Or completely blank obverse in different colors.
Reverse: Black, rippled surface.
Sizes: 29mm x 1mm (MUR—1, MUR-2); or 16mm x 1mm (MUR-3 to MUR-8)

Title of game: "Murder, She Wrote — A Game of Strategy and Pursuit"
Publisher: Warren, with (c) 1985 Universal City Studios, Inc.
Ages: 10-Adult
Players: 4-6
Object: "For the MURDERER — to silence at least five witnesses and escape the island in a motorboat. For JESSICA (represented by the other three to five players) — to discover the identity of the MURDERER and capture him/her."
Comment: The is a spin-off of the TV mystery program of the same name.

22. — OLD WITCH "BREWSOME" STUNTS

Obverse: Black cat's face on orange background. Or orange jack-o-lantern's face outlined in black on orange background.
Reverse: Unknown
Size: 31mm x 1mm
Number of copies of each: 1
Names of tokens: "Discs" (all); "Black Cats" (OLD-1 to OLD-9) for girls; "Jack-O-Lanterns" (OLD-10 to OLD-18) for boys.

(Note: Each picture is different from the others. The tokens are listed by type and position, counting clockwise from the upper left. Black Cat 1 is in the upper left corner, Jack-O-Lantern 1 is to the Cat's right, etc., around the board.)

OLD-1 (Black cat 1)
OLD-2 (Black cat 2)
OLD-3 (Black cat 3)

Title of game: "Old Witch 'Brewsome' Stunts — For Hallowe'en Parties"
Publisher: No information but "Made in U S A." (ca. late 1930s-early 1940s)
Ages: Unspecified
Players: Up to 9 boys and 9 girls
Object: "Do stunt described on inside. Find partners for party by locating other person with same number."
Comment: This unusual party boardgame measures 9¼ inches x 7½ inches. The orange and black front is stapled twice on each edge to the grey back. The game contains information within the tokens, which have to be punched out. Because my copy of the board is unused, only the Old Witch knows the secrets hidden within.

23. — PIZZA PARTY

Obverse: Cartoon character of a pizza topping on colored background. Or "SWITCH!" in white on colored background.
Reverse: Brick red.
Size: 51mm x 1½mm

Title of game: "Prime Number Checkers — Recognition of Prime Numbers"
Publisher: (c) 1981 Milton Bradley Co.
Ages: Unspecified

Players: 2
Object: "The Winner is the player who: a. captures all his/her opponent's pieces, or b. blocks all opponents moves, or c. if no further captures can be made, has captured more pieces than his/her opponent, or d. if both players have captured the same number of pieces, has the highest total of numbers on captured pieces."
Comment: This is a mathematical version of checkers. Some of the moves are determined by the numeric relationships of the numbers on the tokens. For instance, a jump can be made only if the difference between two pieces is a prime number.

25. — THE RESCUERS

Obverse: Face of a cartoon animal.

A Challenge

Recently I obtained the business card that accompanies this challenge at an antique shop in southeasten Iowa. The name "O.B. Boutwell" seemed somehow vaguely familiar. And then I remembered: There is a rare Hard Times token (Low #87) issued by O(liver) & P(hardice) Boutwell. Could there be a connection between the token and the business card? The name "Boutwell" surely isn't that common. Still, the token is some twenty-two years older and from Troy, New York, rather than Northampton, Massachusetts. A quick glance at a map reveals the distance between these cities to be sixty to seventy miles. A connection is possible, but it is unlikely that I will be able to discover it living in Iowa.

But you might! I will give this business card to the first TAMS member who writes in to the editor of the TAMS Journal requesting it and volunteering to try to find out if there is a connection between the token and the business card. This person must further agree to let us all know that he or she has found out in a subsequent issue of the TAMS Journal. All I ask is the promise of an honest effort and, perhaps only briefly, a report of that effort.

Remember, our Journal editor is a busy man and will probably not acknowledge any unsuccessful requests. He already has received the business card from me. It's in a stamped envelope, just waiting for that first request. Good luck!

An Update for the Tokens of Antonio Vaca Diez

by George Lill III

Having been a numismatic purist up until a few years ago when I saw the light and expanded my horizons to include the fascinating area of tokens, I'm a relatively new member of TAMS. Being an avid student of Bolivian history, I soon made use of the librarial services offered by our society so that I might obtain any input available on that country. Understandably there wasn't that much, but one of the articles I did receive was an excellently written one by E. C. Leslie (TAMS Journal, April 1973) on the Bolivian Rubber Plantation Tokens. In it he listed two differend 20 centavos tokens; one for Antonio Vaca Diez and the other for Augusto Roca y Hno.

I was immediately struck by the fact that I felt the listings had to be incomplete. Certainly the remoteness of the area and the economic conditions of the late 1870s and 1880s would have dictated a need for a means of commercial exchange other than barter (one ball of latex gum for you and a pack of chewing gum for me?). Those same needs would have required other denominations.

I'm fully aware that in the ensuing thirteen years since this article was written Leslie, or others, very possibly have become aware of other denominations. On the flip side of the token, it's also possible that other denominations haven't yet been cataloged, as being quite familiar with the South American preoccupation with hard assets (caused by the many economic and military situations that many of us have fortunately never experienced) we may not realize that most tokens have merely been consigned to the junk heap once their immediate need was served. Spanish Colonial coins and even macquinas ("cobs" to most) can be found more readily than one finds tokens. When found, tokens are valued so little that the locals many times will think that you are kidding when you want to know how much; other times they quote a price with a half questioning, half apologetic tone of voice for, perhaps, asking too much...after all, it's not of silver. Stop your salivating — you read too quickly over the words "when found."

This past May, in Bolivia, I finally found an additional denomination of the Diez issues, and upon returning have found another in a dealer's list. For those who may be interested, I list the three presently known denominations. It wouldn't surprise me to have a 50 centavos show up some day; happy hunting.

Diameter:	5 centavos — 16.8mm 10 centavos — 19.3mm 20 centavos — 23.6mm
Edge:	Same for all denominations — lightly reeded.
Metal:	Nickel
Obverse:	FICHAS PARA EL ESTABLECIMIENTO DE ORTON / 5 / CENTAVOS / 1889
Reverse:	ANTONIO VACA DIEZ / 5 / CENTAVOS / ORTON (Other denominations have the same inscriptions as the 5 centavos, except for the value on obverse and reverse.)

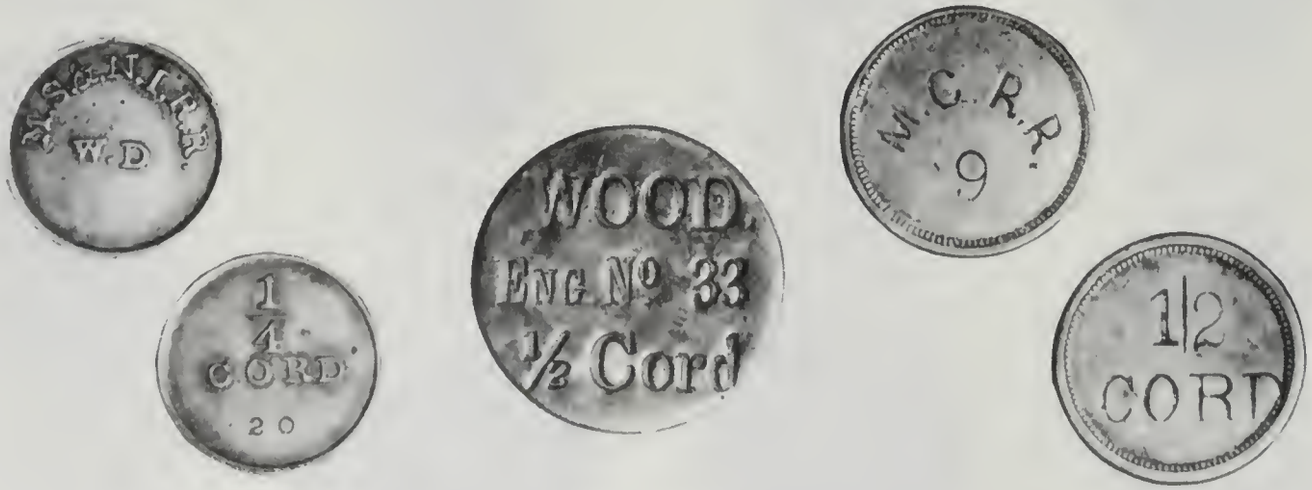
Railroad Cord Wood Token Listings Needed

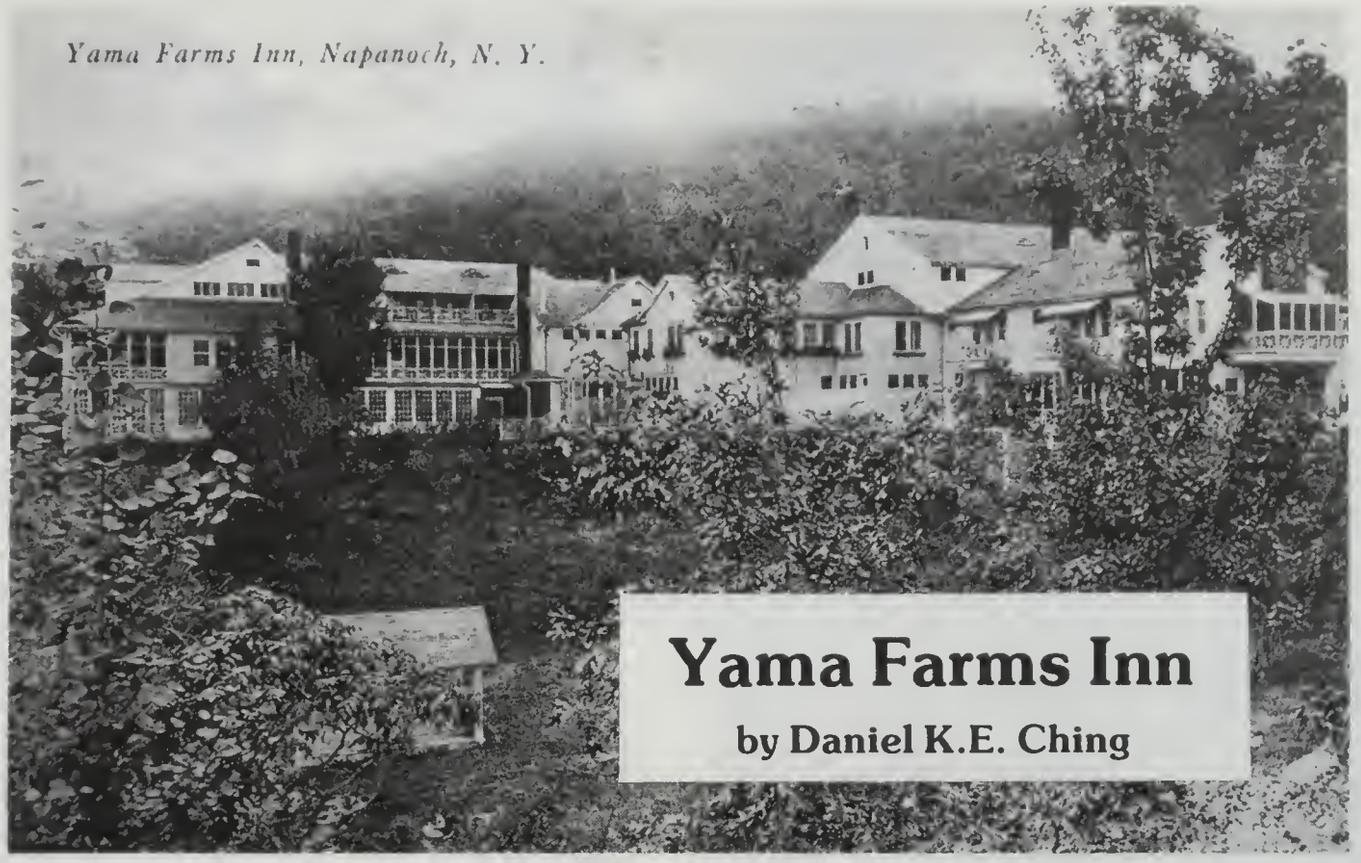
During the latter half of the nineteenth century, a most intriguing type of token was utilized by certain railroad companies. This was the so-called "cord wood" token, used on wood-burning locomotives to pay for wood purchased at stations along the line of a railroad.

Today these tokens, which are avidly sought by collectors of railroadiana as well as exonumists, are all scarce; indeed, many of them are quite rare. Perhaps this explains why so little seems to be known about the series.

For a number of years I have been keeping records of all tokens which have appeared on the marketplace or have been described in books, articles, etc. These notes, along with descriptions obtained through letters from collectors owning tokens, have resulted in a sizable listing of cord wood tokens.

I have decided to compile all this data and publish it in article form. Toward this end I solicit correspondence from TAMS Journal readers having railroad cord wood tokens. If you own tokens, exact descriptions (including size in mm and metal) are needed. In addition, I am especially anxious to hear from collectors having information concerning the use of these tokens. Please write to David E. Schenkman, P.O. Box 366, Bryantown, MD 20617.





Yama Farms Inn

by Daniel K.E. Ching

When you're collecting Chinese-related American tokens, advertising trade cards, picture post cards, and sheet music, eventually you realize that before and right after 1900, Americans seem to have made very little differentiation between Chinese and Japanese. Some of the illustrators of the covers of sheet music would either provide a Japanese woman on the cover for a Chinese love song, or combine both Chinese and Japanese clothing and hair styles on the same woman.

When I bought my first brass Yama $20 token in 1981 I knew then that "Yama" meant "mountain" in Japanese because the same character "shan" in Chinese also means "mountain." I made inquiries among the collectors and dealers who specialized in Japanese coins and tokens. No one had any information or could help.

As luck would have it, one day while browsing in an antique shop in the Atwater district of Los Angeles a shoe box of old picture post cards produced several mint, unused cards — some in color, some in black and white — identified as Yama Farms, Yama Inn, and Yama Farms Inn of Napanoch, New York. I had found the location of the Yama Farms Inn! It helps to be a deltiologist (post card collector).

A few long distance calls to New York resulted in a letter of inquiry directed to the county seat where Napanoch is located. No response at all was forthcoming and that was about three years ago.

A mail auction produced the original steel dies for the obverses of the $20, $50, and $100 tokens. In 1985 I added the gilted $50 to my collection. These high denominations suggest that the gaming chips were valued dollar for dollar with coin of the realm, and were used by well-to-do patrons frequenting the resort. The picture post card style indicates the time period to be after 1907 but before 1920.

The tokens all measure 32.5mm in diameter and 2mm thick. The obverse reads GOOD FOR FUN AT YAMA FARMS INN / $20 (or other denomination). The reverse inscription is LET US LINGER HERE IN THE BEAUTIFUL FOOLISHNESS OF THINGS. The three vertical characters read YAMA NO NEI, a very poetic expression in hiragana Japanese which suggests that perhaps the originator had help in selecting the name for the resort from a Japanese or Japanese-speaking person who knew the language well. There is no direct translation since it is in the poetic form and is a proper name of the place, such as MOUNTAIN PLACE, MOUNTAIN RESORT, or MOUNTAIN INN. The picture post cards show that the setting was in a mountainous area and quite picturesque.

The TAMS Maverick listing for October 1987 (see listing number 11967) mandated the submission of this short article in a spirit of sharing information with the collecting community. Incidently, one of the $20 tokens in my collection is definitely yellow brass; the second specimen is copper or bronze (it is reddish brown in color). The $50 and $100 denominations appear to be gold plated copper. Any further information would be welcome.

Medal Launches Drive for Challenger Memorial

Leo Vogel of Danbury, Connecticut has a dream — to build a memorial to the Challenger 7 astronauts killed aboard the space shuttle in the fiery explosion, January 28, 1986. His is not an earthbound dream, however, his memorial will circle the globe — in space.

Vogel's Challenger 7 Space Monument Project is launched with the issuance of a medal this month portraying the Challenger on its intended mission, carrying people and cargo into space. On the reverse is an American eagle, symbolic of our country's space achievements, and the surnames of the seven astronauts lost in the tragedy.

The monument in space will have a twin on earth. While the Space Monument circles overhead, a duplicate will be on display at an earthbound site. The memorial will have portraits of the Challenger 7 crew as well as Grissom, White and Chaffee who gave their lives as true space pioneers in the Apollo 1 fire in 1967. Ideas for an inscription for the monument are being solicited from schoolchildren across the U.S. The student submitting the accepted entry will have his name and inscription, as well as the name of his school, on the memorials.

Forty-two year old Vogel, a lifelong space enthusiast and Air Force veteran, announced his project in January 1987 and has successfully completed phase one, getting the medals into production. Leaving a successful career in radio and consulting, he has dedicated himself to fully realizing the potential of the Challenger 7 Space Monument Project and is joined by Teacher in Space Finalist from Hawaii, Joseph E. Ciotti, PhD. Ciotti, a NASA Space Ambassador and recipient of the Dr. Robert Goddard Memorial Space Scholarship, will serve as Aerospace and Educational Advisor to the Project while continuing to instruct students at Windham Community College in Astronomy, Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics.

To create the Challenger 7 Space Monument Medal, the Project engaged Edward R. Grove, former engraver with the U.S. Mint. The prominent medalist/sculptor has designed more than 100 coins and medals. His works are displayed in the Smithsonian Institution and Metropolitan Museum, as well as the Imperial Palace in Tokyo and Krakow Museum, overseas. Grove's models were employed by the Medallic Art Company of Danbury, Connecticut to strike the medals in silver, gold and bronze.

Jack Rose, 43, Project Coordinator, of Redding, Ct., is overseeing the design and production of the medals. Rose who worked on the authorized U.S. Bicentennial and Statue of Liberty commemoratives, has more than 25 years experience in the field with coins, medals and stamps.

The medals, designed by Leo Vogel and Jack Rose, went on sale to the public in January. The primary offering is the "Challenger Silver Eagle," a one ounce, fine silver, proof medal. Half of the profits from the sale of the "Silver Eagle" as well as a portion of the other sales will go directly to fund the Challenger 7 Space Monument Project and donate to the Challenger Center.

The one ounce silver proof medal is $29.50. The 1¼ inch bronze medal costs $5.95 and the 1½ inch bronze is $9.50. Both bronze medals come with display holders. Sets of silver proof and 24k gold over silver cost $75.00. Sets of silver proof and bronze are $47.50. Solid gold medal prices on request. The medals may be ordered from the Challenger 7 Space Monument Project, 9-17 Farview Ave., Danbury, CT 06810. Phone (203) 790-1902. A Certificate of Authenticity accompanies each medal. Precious medals and sets are individually numbered. Include $2.00 postage and insurance for single medals and $3.00 for sets. Production and delivery time is 6-8 weeks.

1981, 50 centavos or US $.02). Part of this new system was the installation of public pay phones in the phone company building lobby, the railroad terminal, the airport terminal, along El Prado (the main avenue through La Paz) and a few other locations.

As the rampant inflation that was to rack Bolivia for the next five years began, the public pay phones were recoined to take a peso and then finally 5 pesos (this being the largest coin in circulation). This did not suffice for very long with an inflation rate that was to eventually exceed 76,000% over a four year period.

Yes, you're right...true tokens could have been issued, but why? Tokens would have cost money to produce and especially in the size of the 5 peso coin for which the phones were coined. Smaller tokens could have been produced but this would have necessitated the changing of the coin slots to accept the new token, which would only be an additional expense over that of producing the tokens...and, my friends times were rough. The logical solution...use the now valueless 5 peso coins for telephone tokens as well as help solve an unemployment problem at the same time. The banks stopped issuance of all remaining coins in their vaults (where most had ended up as they no longer would purchase anything) and TASA started selling them at a discount to the blind (eye disease is prevalent in many areas of South America) or crippled, who would then sit by their "own" public telephone selling the 5 peso coin token for the prevailing rate. In July of 1985 that was about 10,000 pesos (slightly more than 2 cents US), while by May of 1986 it had climbed to 200,000 pesos (about 10 cents US). However, the South American way of life is much like your local coin show; if you know what you're doing, you never pay the price the dealer asks. In this case, the 1986 price was for the touristas along the main drag or in the major hotels. Those in the know merely walked a block or so off the main thoroughfare and then the token could be had for as little as half the "El Prado" price.

Therefore, the next time you visit your local show and can buy a KM 197 (the Bolivian 5 peso coin of 1976-80) you shall have to make up your own mind as to whether you have purchased a coin, a token, or two for the price of one.

PLEASE. . .

When you move, send the Secretary your change of address as soon as possible. Journals sent to old addresses are expensive — we must pay to have them returned, and then spend a minimum of 88¢ to mail them to the members' current addresses. This becomes quite expensive when we have at least a dozen or more for each issue!

INFORMATION FOR ADVERTISERS

Advertising Restrictions

All advertisers must subscribe to the TAMS code of ethical standards. The editor is vested with the right to reject any offered advertising which he feels is not in keeping with the best objectives of TAMS. All advertisers must supply their own cuts or art work, unless other arrangements are made. All ads are priced on a CASH IN ADVANCE basis. Further information regarding advertising is available by writing to the editor.

Classified Advertising

Classified ads, up to a maximum limitation of 25 words, are free to all members. Only one free ad may be submitted by each member per issue. All free ads must be re-submitted each issue...no run 'til further notice ads allowed. Ads larger than 25 words are also accepted, providing the additional words are remitted for at the standing rate of 10-cents per word, per insertion.

Mail Bid Ads

It is recommended that closing dates in mail ads be set six weeks following the listed issue date in which it is to be inserted. While the Token and Medal Society endeavors to place issues in the hands of its members no later than two or three weeks following the issue date, it assumes no responsibility to do so. All mail bids must include any rules that apply to the sale being held. The term "usual rules" is not acceptable.

Medallic Portraits of Adolf Hitler

by R.W. Colbert and William D. Hyder

Medallic Portraits of Adolf Hitler by Colbert and Hyder lists all of the known issues of medals and tokens, pinbacks, plaques, patterns and fantasy pieces every issued.

Included in this 160 page 6"x9" book are 233 listings and nearly 400 quality half-tones. Each of the medallic portraits listed has been assigned a catalog number and such pertinent information as obverse/reverse description and physical detail information is given.

An excellent biographical sketch familiarizes readers with Hitler's life from his early years as a struggling Vienna postcard artist, to his rise as an infamous political figure.

Medallic Portraits of Adolf Hitler, hard-bound in black cloth and stamped in gold foil, is available to TAMS members for $11.25. That's a savings of $2.75 from the regular retail price of $14.00.

Dealer inquires are invited.

IOWA TRADE TOKENS

by Lewis K. Ferguson

Published by
Token and Medal Society

From Ackley to Zearing all known examples — over 7500 — of Iowa trade tokens are cataloged in this long awaited, up-dated edition. Lewis K. Ferguson the author, is considered to be the authority on this subject, having produced the first edition, Trade Tokens of Iowa, in 1972. Since that time, thousands of new tokens have surfaced, which necessitated an increase in size from 394 pages to 520!

The introduction gives a brief history of the important role the token played in our economic society. Also explained is the easy-to-use cataloging system, plus a rarity rating which is an important factor when determining value. This 6x9 volume is casebound and has the title stamped in gold on the front cover as well as the spine.

A special discount is being offered to TAMS members.

MEMBER PRICE $20.00; NON-MEMBERS $25.00
DEALER PRICE $17.50, 3-11; $15.00, 12-49; $12.50, 50 +

The 1988 Supplement & Addendum to Ruggeri's Index to TAMS-Listed Maverick Tokens is now available.

Volume I consists of a 24-page alphabetical listing which includes all of the mavericks first listed in the TAMS JOURNAL during 1986/7, as well as all attributions reported during the same period.

The Addendum consists of additional pages, to be added to the pages in Volume II of the 1986 Edition, thus making that volume current through December 1987.

The Supplement and Addendum is priced at $5.25 postpaid. During 1988, anyone ordering the 2-volume 1986 Edition for $35.00 will receive the 1988 Supplement and Addendum for an additional $2.25.

Come With Us

Remember when the thrill of a new coin discovery made numismatics so worthwhile? When you could answer an ad and get what you paid for?

It's still that way in NUMISMATIC NEWS.

Coin Market keeps you on top of today's marketplace — more than ever, as it rivals even the most sophisticated "insider" newsletter, those selling for as much as four times our annual rate.

But, we've never lost our enthusiasm for the hobby, and it shows on every page, from Burnett Anderson's Washington reports, to Alan Herbert's Coin Clinic. If you've found your enthusiasm for the hobby flagging; or if you failed to get fair treatment elsewhere. Come with us. At NUMISMATIC NEWS we believe the best is yet to come.

FREE LOAN

The TAMS slide/tape program is a 22 minute overview of exonumia and is available for "free" loan (borrower is requested to pay postage both ways).

A three minute repeating tape and slide set is available with the TAMS automatic projection machine for use at coin and exonumia shows.

Now available is a new slide and sound cassette program for loan to TAMS members. "The Case of the Misplaced Soda Token" was written and produced by David and Charlotte Gale and tells a story surrounding a soda token. The program is based upon a Heath Literary Award-winning article.

For scheduling any of these programs (borrower is requested to pay postage each way) please contact:

BUY OR BID SALE !

Some Equatorial Guinea Scarce Silver Crowns
Plus Several Copper And Aluminum Very Rare Essais!

This is like an auction... you can offer what you feel each lot is worth... prices at right are only estimates... however, those who don't want to take any chances can buy outright at the estimated price. Others with reasonable offers would be notified within 2 or 3 weeks after having received them.

The following is a very unusual list of essais (trial pieces) of silver and gold coins issued in different metals by the mint house that made the coins! All of them are included in the 1986 Krause-Mishler Standard Catalog of World Coins. Estimated mintage is 20 for the copper pieces and 25 for the aluminum! This is choice material for the collector or investor who likes unusual and different items. We have included here the corresponding silver legal tender coins that go with some of these rarities. Please check. It would be excellent to exhibit or show the coin together with its corresponding off-metal trial pieces issued by the same mint house!

With an estimated mintage of 20 for coppers and 25 for aluminums, how many of these can there be in the U.S.? How many in Canada? In Great Britain? In Germany? France? Italy? Spain? Switzerland? How many in the remaining European countries? How many in each of the more than 20 Latin American countries? In the Arab countries. In the rest of the world? This is really a unique opportunity to acquire and possess some truly rare pieces and at your own price!

All of the pieces included in this auction are Equatorial Guinea and in Proof condition. Prices at right are only estimates.

NEW, REDUCED PRICES **********

On Special Lots of Transportation Tokens

Due to several recent bulk purchases, we are able to reduce our prices and increase the variety on our special wholesale lots of transportation tokens. Collectors and Dealers alike will appreciate the great value of these interesting lots! The best possible offers at our lowest prices!

I. 100 Different Transit Tokens **********

Our most popular lot! We sold many lots at $24 and $26 each, and in 1985 and 1986 sold them for $22.50. We are now offering 100 different all-metal transit tokens for only $19.95, our lowest price ever. Our flea market sellers report excellent sales, with scarcer pieces bringing catalog or higher, and about half the rest at $1 each. I've seen some actually sell at $4 each, which I think is too high for the more common pieces, but the dealers report satisfied customers. For the collector this lot is an excellent way to get started at a low price for a great selection. No culls or damaged pieces, all metal. We must sell in bulk and pass the savings on to you. Less than $.20 each! Postpaid. Mostly dime to quarter size.

Lot of 100 Different Transit Tokens.....$19.95 Postpaid.
Our most popular lot, at our best price ever.

Five lots 100 Diff. Transit Tokens..$89.95
Less than $.18 each. Ppd.

100 Diff. Transit Tokens ($125 Catalog Value).....$27.50
Much duplication with above lot. This popular $125 catalog lot has several high catalog value tokens.

Both 100 Diff. Lots (200 total).....$42.50

II. 2500 Mixed Transit Tokens - Super Bulk Lots **********

A tremendous bargain! At a price of only 4 1/2 cents each, we sold many, many lots. Now lowered to less than 4 cents each, these lots will be even more popular with dealers. We previously offered this lot at $114.95, our finest bulk lot with double the number of different pieces in our regular $99.95 lot of 2500 mixed. We now offer this double-variety lot as our regular $99.95 lot and have priced our old 2500 mixed lot even lower. You get better variety at a lower price!

Good sellers at coin and antique shows, shops, and flea markets, etc. These lots will consist of both the large and small size "modern" (post-1910) transit tokens, all obsolete, all metal. Another sure winner! Minimum catalog value is $375 (up to $625 or more). Sorry, these are NOT all different and even our finest lot has MUCH duplication. All postpaid to a street address via UPS. Please add $3 for P.O. shipments. Probably will contain some varieties, not all different issuers. Lots do vary.

A. -2500 Mixed (Our Finest bulk Lot!) ...$99.95
Double the number of different of our B. Lot
All metal, postpaid.

B. -2500 Mixed $69.95
Still a good selection, and even cheaper.
All metal, postpaid.

C. -1250 Mixed .....$59.95 ppd.
Same as our A. Lot, with double different. But only half the quantity, for the smaller dealer.

D. -2500 All the Same.....$69.95 ppd.
Our choice, all metal, good condition.
(Multiple lots available, the same or different)

III. Atwood/Coffee Transit Catalogs **********

These catalogs list all the known transit tokens, and are the standard references in the hobby. Vol. I is a MUST for all Collectors and Dealers! These are the latest, most recent books available.

Vol. I: Catalog of United States and Canadian Transportation Tokens, The Listing .....$27.50 ppd.
Hardbound, 1982, 4th and latest edition. 548 pages. Detailed descriptions, photos and prices for each variety. Includes the 1987 Supplement FREE (A $4.95 value!).

Vol. IA: Supplement to Catalog of US and Canadian Transportation Tokens, Coffee.....$4.95 ppd.
Softbound, 1987 (July), 64 pages. Contains all known new issues since 1982, unlisteds, etc.

Vol. II: The History and Encyclopedia .....$32.50 ppd.
Hardbound, 1984, 776 pages. Many articles, detailed research (mintages and dates, etc.) on most tokens. Interesting! Includes many photographs not in Vol. I.

Vol. III: The Die Variety Encyclopedia .....$49.95 ppd.
Hardbound, 1986, 960 pages. Detailed examination of die varieties, with lots of photos.

IV. SPECIAL OFFERS **********

C. Take both the Atwood/Coffee LISTING, Vol. I ($27.50) AND 100 Different Transit Tokens ($19.95) Includes $4.95 Supplement. Total retail value of $52.40 for ONLY.....$41.95 ppd.
